

At Melton Design Build, we specialize in converting our client's dreams into reality with our award-winning residential design and construction services. If you'd like a rewarding position with an organization who promotes a strong work-life balance, respect among its employees, an excellent benefits package (including 100% paid health insurance), and is a fun place to work, we'd love to talk to you!

WHO WE ARE:

Based in Boulder, Colorado, Melton Design Build is one of the top Design Build firms in the country. With a focus on having ecstatic clients and happy employees, we have made it possible for hundreds of Boulder County residents to enjoy well-designed homes that complement their lifestyles.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

The Revit Drafter is an essential part of our talented design team. This dynamic individual is responsible for assisting the team with construction projects by developing schematic design, design development, and construction documents in Revit. This person will also communicate with the city and county regarding energy efficiency, zoning, and other permitting requirements, collects building permit information, and works with outside engineers to complete structural engineering which will be included in our drawing sets. Ultimately, this person will help the design team put together compelling client presentations, that include 3D renderings of the design ideas, and truly help our clients dreams come to life.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED:

- 2-5 years of hands-on Revit drafting experience
- Highly proficient with Revit Architecture
- Strong attention to detail
- Excellent follow through
- Ability to prioritize tasks for multiple projects
- Critical thinking and problem solving skills are essential
- Experience with residential remodels
- Experience with new residential construction and commercial work is a plus
- An understanding of construction methods
- Permit submittal experience
